

WOODEN SUBSCRIPTION

A set of workshops

The set of three woodworking workshops is intended for complete beginners as well as experienced carpenters who may not have the appropriate tools at home to realize their ideas.

Education and work will take place in the technically modern woodworking workshop of Kočevje Grammar and Secondary School. The final result of the workshops will be the production of a wooden product according to your own idea. The introductory intensive workshop will be aimed at acquiring, refreshing or supplementing knowledge about working with wood. It will include demonstrating and testing the use of various tools, machines and techniques, as well as help with the design of your product, along with advice on how to use materials. In the second and third workshops, you will make your wooden product under the expert guidance of a mentor.

KONSTRUKTA

Constructing competition

The KONSTRUKTA is a wooden toy that offers the possibility of assembling many interesting shapes. With the help of wooden modules and connectors, we can assemble various vehicles, animals, buildings, or imaginary objects. It was designed by the world-renowned Slovenian designer Niko Kralj in the 1970s, and at the Festival of Wood we recently developed it and offered it on the market so that it is finally accessible to children, young people and fans of construction puzzles. The assembly competition is intended for children who want to learn about the Konstrukta toy and compete in creativity and skill.
